2. Scroll down and click on "For Clinicians
3. Click on "Click here to get started"
4. Fill in the Clinician Registration form
5. Click on "Sign up"
6. The Gottman institute will review your application then send you a link via email to your Clinician Page.
7. On your clinician page click "New Assessment"
8. Decide who is paying, you or your client. If you are paying you will be asked to enter your credit card details.
9. Complete couple registration information which simply requires their names and an email address for each of them.
10. Your couple will each be sent a link via email to complete their assessment, once both of them have completed you will be sent an email advising you that a new assessment is available. You can simply click on the link or just go to the website and log in to your page. All your couple assessments will be found on this page.
